1. Summarising is when you pick out the most important ideas in a text and restate them in your own words. What is the most important idea under the heading, 'The Designer'?

2. What is the Director’s job?

3. Alliteration is the repetition of the same consonant at the beginning of several words placed together, such as 'she sells sea shells'. Can you find an example of alliteration in this text?

4. Why do you think the composer has provided a 'bird’s eye view' photo in this text?

5. Who composes the instruction manual for the game?

6. Why do you think it is important to have music in the game?

7. What sort of game would you like to design? Why would that be your choice?